NOTICE TO THE MARKET

On April 13, 2020, Oi S.A. – In Judicial Reorganization (“Oi” or “Company”) received notice from the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the “NYSE”) that it was not in compliance with NYSE’s continued listing standard that requires that the average closing price of a company’s listed securities not fall below $1.00 per share for any consecutive 30 trading-day period.

Under NYSE rules, Oi has a period of six months from the receipt of the NYSE notice to regain compliance with the minimum share price requirement. As a result of temporary relief granted to the NYSE by the SEC, this period was tolled from April 21, 2020 through June 30, 2020; as a result, Oi must regain compliance prior to December 22, 2020. During the interim period, Oi’s American Depositary Shares, each representing five Oi common share (“ADSs”), will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE, subject to the Company’s compliance with other NYSE continued listing requirements.

If Oi does not otherwise regain compliance with the minimum share price requirement, Oi intends to amend the terms of its ADSs to increase the number of common shares of the Company represented by the ADSs in order to regain compliance with the NYSE’s minimum share price requirement. Oi has not yet determined the applicable ratio of shares per ADS, but intends to select these ratios with the expectation that following this amendment, Oi will be in compliance with the NYSE’s minimum share price requirement for the foreseeable future. The amendments of the terms of the ADSs must be approved by Oi’s Board of Directors. If necessary, Oi intends to implement this change in ratio sufficiently in advance of December 22, 2020 to ensure compliance prior to that date.

Rio de Janeiro, May 12, 2020.
